DRAW

- a) The draw will take place on Friday 11th December 2020
- b) The draw is automated
  - I. The system used is Donorflex by Care Data Systems
  - II. The system has been verified by the Centre for Advanced Software Technology (CAST) Limited, for fairness and compliance with the applicable sections of the Gambling Commission's Technical Standards
  - III. The results of the draw are recorded by the system within the draw process

PRIZES

- a) Each ticket can only win once, however, if you hold more than one ticket each one has an equal chance to win a prize. This does mean a player could win more than one prize.
- b) Only tickets paid for are entered into the draw, this means the prizes are guaranteed, there are no rollovers
- c) Prizes are as advertised on the charity's website and your ticket. There are no alternatives to any prize won and no interest is payable
- d) The Charity reserves the right to withhold payment of any prize if there is doubt as to the validity, or age, of a subscriber until such time as an investigation has been completed
- e) The person named on the raffle ticket stub will be the only person entitled to the prize
- f) Prizes are subject to availability and the charity reserves the right in exceptional or unforeseen circumstances to substitute any prize acquired for the raffle with a similar prize of equal value. Prizes are non-transferable and non-negotiable
- g) Any un-cashed or unclaimed prizes will be deemed as a donation to GNAAS after a period of not less than 6 months

WINNERS

- a) Winners will be notified by phone, email or by post
- b) A complete list of winning numbers are published, on the Charity's website
- c) Prize winning cheques will only be made out to the ticket holder
- d) If a prize winner cannot be contacted or does not come forward within 28 days, from the date of the draw, another ticket will be drawn
- e) If the charity is subsequently informed a prize winner is deceased, any prizes won after the player's death but before we are notified by the personal representatives, will only be reissued to the deceased's personal representatives. (Supporting documentation will be required)

CANCELLATION OF ENTRY AND REFUNDS

- a) Entrants to the annual raffle can cancel at any time providing we receive the request by the last working day, before, the day of the draw. A refund will be issued by cheque and your raffle numbers removed from the draw. Please inform the charity by ringing 0800 1777 035, or email raffle@greatnorthairambulance.co.uk, or in writing to: The Great North Air Ambulance Raffle, Progress House, Urray Nook Road, Eaglescliffe, TS16 0QB
- b) Refunds will only be paid by cheque, please allow up to 14 days to process the request
- c) If we are notified of a player's death, any refund requested before the draw will only be payable to the deceased's personal representatives from the date of receipt of notice of such subscriber's death. Supporting documentation will be required.

PLAYERS RESPONSIBILITIES

- a) It is your responsibility to ensure the contact details the Charity has confirmed with you are correct and to inform of any errors by contacting the lottery office
- b) It is your responsibility to inform the lottery office of any change in contact details. (All prizes and communications will only be sent to the ticket holder at the address on their ticket stub)

LIABILITY

- a) The Charity shall not be liable to a player for loss or damage from:
  - i. Any payments, raffle tickets, stubs, communications or prizes which are lost, stolen or delayed in the post
  - ii. Entries from which the entrant cannot be identified
  - iii. Any delay in payments through the banking system
  - iv. Any event beyond the reasonable control of the charity

SEGREGATION OF FUNDS

We are required by our licence to inform what happens to lottery subscriptions which we hold on account for you to fund your entry into future draws, and the extent to which funds are protected in the event of insolvency. We hold funds relating to future lottery draws separate from other charity funds in designated bank accounts. In the event that the charity became insolvent, these funds are not protected and there would therefore be no guarantee that funds held will be repaid. This meets the Gambling Commission's requirements for the segregation of customer funds at the basic level of segregation.
